VOL. XXXV.

STANFORD, KY., TUESDAY, MAY 14, 1907.

NO. 21.

MIDDLEBURG.

P. H. Taylor is at home from Jackson, where he is in the timber business with his brother, Michel.

There is talk of a skating rink at Yosemite. Quince Jones and Jason Lawhorn are the agitators, and it may be a go.

Rev. W. G. Gilford speaks in the highest terms of his brethren at Pleasant Point and is much encouraged with the prospects there.

Rev. J. W. Hall failed to fill his appointment at Green River Sunday. He was detained at home on account of the illness of Mrs. Hall.

James Durham and Miss Ida Brasher were married at the home of the bride at Yosemite. Squire Bob Staton tied the knot in an impressive style.

A protracted meeting will begin at the Baptist church here on the first Sunday in June. Rev. Cokely will assist the pastor. Everybody invited to come and take part in the services.

The Middleburg Normal College baseball team defeated the D. & D. team at Danville 11 to 14. They know how to play ball and our boys say they are as gentlemanly a set of fellows as ever wielded a bat or knocked a fly.

Suckers were on the shoals last week, and numbers of them were giggered, hooked and otherwise taken from the streams hereabout. Lincoln Wells and W. Y. Moore were successful in getting in their work with gig and hook.

Mrs. William Lyons, who died at Junction City, was brought here Monday and interred in Middleburg cemetery. Deceased was a daughter of Mr. Elisha Gilford and was about 54 years old. She was a member of the Baptist church here and was a good, christian woman.

GRADED SCHOOL NOTES.

Next Sunday morning at the Christian church Dr. R. H. Crossfield will preach the Baccalaureate sermon to the graduating class.

On Monday, 20th, at Walton's Opera House at 10 A. M. the seniors will give a program known as class day. They have a very interesting program.

Everybody is most cordially invited to all the closing exercises of the school and it will gratify all to know that the largest graduating class since its establishment goes out at this time.

Miss Lucy Peterson, the efficient teacher of the 5th and 6th grades, has recently been elected to position in the Cynthiana Graded School. She will begin her duties there the first of September.

On Wednesday morning at Walton's Opera House the annual commencement exercises will be held. Dr. F. W. Hinnitt, president of Central University, will make the address and his ability as a speaker is too well known to need commendation.

Mr. J. C. Cheek was elected to the position of high school teacher at a recent meeting of the board. He is a graduate of Central University at Danville. His home is at Fulton, Ky., where his father has been superintendent of schools for a number of years. He is a valuable addition to the faculty.

The final entertainment will be given at the opera house on the evening of May 22nd by the music department. There will be two speakers at this recital and it will then be decided who shall represent the school at the Blue Grass Graded School Tournament in the Senior Declamatory Contest. The usual admission will be charged.

THE MOST BEAUTIFUL WOMEN IN KENTUCKY.—The Beauty Contest conducted by the Courier-Journal during the past three months has been concluded, and the pictures of the successful ones will be printed in the Sunday Courier-Journal May 26. Several thousand photographs were submitted in this contest. The three most beautiful have been selected by a committee of well known people. These three will be entered in a National Contest, to find the most beautiful woman in the United States. Everybody will want to see the pictures of the most beautiful woman in Kentucky. If you do not get the Sunday Courier-Journal by mail or through an agent, send 5 cents for a copy of this issue of May 26 at once to the Courier-Journal Co., Louisville, Ky., and see the faces of the three most beautiful women in the State.

Don't Pay Alimony

to be divorced from your appendix. There will be no occasion for it if you keep your bowels regular with Dr. King's New Life Pills. Their action is so gentle that the appendix never has cause to make the least complaint. Guaranteed by G. L. Penny, druggist, 25c. Try them.

The Chemist—I have been experimenting with this new compound for two weeks, and I cannot decide what it is.

The Promoter—Say, old man, you've struck a great idea for a health food.

Clem Cochran, an aged citizen of Casey, is dead.

PREACHERSVILLE.

Born, to the wife of W. C. Cummins, a fine girl. Mrs. J. H. Thompson has been quite sick. William Spangler, of Griffin Station, has typhoid fever.

Quite a number from this place and the East End attended the dedication of Poplar Grove church in Rockcastle Sunday. The dedicatory sermon was preached by Rev. Coker.

Work on the New Tyrone church is rapidly nearing completion under the master hand of Carpenter J. F. Shaw. Sunday school at the Baptist church is progressing nicely with J. F. Holtzclaw as superintendent. In the absence of the regular teacher, Miss Fannie Thompson has charge of the class of little folks.

While surveying land near here in Garrard, an altercation arose concerning the line, between James Dickerson and a Mr. Collett, Sr. Thomas Collett, his son, struck Dickerson a blow on the head, which for a time was feared would prove fatal. Collett went to Lancaster and gave himself up, we understand. Dickerson is much better at last accounts.

Mrs. Owens, of Rockcastle, visited the Misses Thompson. R. C. White and wife visited the latter's mother here Sunday. J. J. Smith and wife, of Rockcastle, were guests at J. M. Cress'. Miss Nora Dyehouse and the Misses Sowder visited Mrs. John Naylor. H. F. Newland and wife were at W. C. Cummins'. Logan Thompson and family visited at J. H. Thompson's.

CHURCH MATTERS.

The third quarterly meeting will be held at the Methodist church here May 25th and 26th instead of May 18 and 19. The church will note this change. W. F. Vaughan, pastor.

Dr. R. H. Crossfield, of Owensboro, has been here one week in a meeting at the Christian church. There is great interest and large crowds are hearing him. Fifty-four additions to date are the visible results of the great meeting, which will continue through this week. Dr. Crossfield is a fluent speaker and an exceedingly able expounder of gospel truths. His lecture, "When We Get Married," was heard by fully 700 people at the Christian church Sunday afternoon. It was very interesting and practical and furnished much food for thought. If you have not heard Dr. Crossfield you have missed hearing one of the most pleasing speakers Stanford has had in many a day.

John Smith went on the witness stand in the trial of James Hargis, charged with complicity in the murder of James Cockrill, at Lexington, and told all he knew of the plot to assassinate Cockrill and others at Jackson. Smith said that when he and Hargis were in Frankfort Hargis offered to go at once to the Governor's office and get Smith a pardon for all the murders, to make sure that the killed Cockrill, Marcum and Cox. Smith's story was corroborated in part by the testimony of other witnesses, who swore that they saw John Abner in the window of the court room with Curt Jett while the shots were being fired.

Sore Nipples.

Any mother who has had experience with this distressing ailment will be pleased to know that a cure may be effected by applying Chamberlain's Salve as soon as the child is done nursing. Wipe it off with a soft cloth before allowing the babe to nurse. Many trained nurses use this salve with best results. For sale by all druggists.

There has never been a case of typhoid fever or appendicitis known to develop where White's Diamond Brand Crab Orchard Water has been used constantly, because it keeps the whole system in perfect order. Do not be imposed upon. There are imitation Crab Orchard Salts and Water on the market; ask your druggist for White's genuine Diamond Brand.

It's the simplest thing in the world to use Hy-o-mel and cure catarrh. Breathe the medication through the little inhaler in every outfit, and you will get relief at once. Money back if it fails. G. L. Penny.

Jaggley—You can't let me have any whisky, because this is a prohibition town! Well, bring me some tea. Waiter—Yes, sir. Scotch, Bourbon or rye?

Orino Laxative Fruit Syrup is best for women and children. Its mild action and pleasant taste makes it preferable to violent purgatives, such as pills, tablets, etc. Get the booklet and a sample of Orino at G. L. Penny's.

"The president pressed the button." "And the exposition started, eh?" "Yes; in about 11 weeks."

Mi-o-nastomach tablets are a permanent cure for indigestion and all stomach misery. Fifty cents a box if they do what is claimed they will; cost you nothing if they fail. G. L. Penny.

NEWS NOTES.

Dogs have been playing havoc with sheep in Mercer.

Thomas H. Thorpe, born in Louisville, passed away in New Orleans. He was a great-grandson of Patrick Henry.

One man was killed, one fatally and two others seriously injured in a railroad wreck at Jones Station, seven miles south of Hamilton, O.

For 24 days a snowstorm has raged in the Southern Wyoming mountains and snow is seven feet deep on a level. Since April 15 the sun has not shone.

The State Prison Commissioners have let a contract with the Hoge Montgomery Company for the use of 100 crippled convicts at twenty-five cents per day.

By direction of the Attorney General suits will be brought against a number of railroads, including three in Kentucky, for violating the safety appliance law.

Pleas of guilty to the charge of violating the anti-trust laws were offered at Toledo by the Ohio Brick and Lumber Co., one of the biggest concerns in that State.

Capt. A. Krech, one of the oldest commanders in the Trans-Atlantic service, died on board his ship in mid-ocean. His body was brought to New York and interred.

Maysville is putting on gala attire to welcome the Knights Templar of Kentucky, who will gather there in annual encampment. Many receptions and entertainments will be given.

At Lexington, Tenn., Cooper Sweatt, a business man, and Chas. Morris, Reuben Potter and Wilbur Johnson, railroad men, were arrested and fined $4 each for drawing matches for cigars. The charge was gambling.

As a result of a wager, a boy under age purchased beer in five saloons in Owensboro and warrants were issued for the saloonkeepers, but were dismissed by the Judge, who did not approve of wagers on such matters.

Development work in the Kentucky oil fields shows an increase during the last week in several districts, with several good strikes in Wayne county and increased drilling in Clinton. Large leases are being taken in McLean county by a syndicate.

In Barren county a number of dogs, driven from their homes by Negroes who were unable to pay the tax and would not kill them, have become wild. They live in a cave and prey on stock in the vicinity. A wild dog hunt is proposed for their extermination.

Newton Veal, a prominent farmer of Fayette county, was shot and instantly killed by Robert Hocker, a Negro, who had previously worked for Veal. Veal was not armed and the shot was fired without warning. Hocker fled in a spring wagon, carrying a loaded shotgun, and was pursued by Veal's brothers.

Two persons were killed, two fatally injured and six seriously hurt when a train on the Covington, Flemingsburg & Ashland railroad went through a trestle two miles from Flemingsburg. The trestle, which was 50 feet high, collapsed, dropping the train and engine into the valley below. The work of rescue was done with great difficulty, a line being formed on the hillside to pass up the dead and injured.

More News from the New England States.

If any one has any doubt as to the virtue of Foley's Kidney Cure, they need only to refer to Mr. Alvin H. Stimpson, of Williamamantic, Conn., who after almost losing hope of recovery, on account of the failure of so many remedies, finally tried Foley's Kidney Cure, which he says was "just the thing" for him, as four bottles cured him completely. He is now entirely well and free from all the suffering incident to acute kidney trouble. G. L. Penny.

Mrs. Jane Frisbie, of St. Louis, was acquitted in the Court of Criminal Correction on a charge of writing policy tickets on the plea that her husband compelled her to write the tickets and that when he married her she promised to "love, honor and obey" him. Mrs. Frisbie confessed to writing the tickets. Judge Taylor held that in misdemeanor cases a wife could not be held responsible when acting under command of her husband.

Kidney complaint kills more people than any other disease. This is due to the disease being so insidious that it gets a good hold on the system before it is recognized. Foley's Kidney Cure will prevent the development of fatal disease if taken in time. G. L. Penny.

IN NEIGHBORING COUNTIES.

Mrs. B. F. Allen is dead in the Ridge section of Casey.

Miss Sarah Carpenter, aged 92, is dead at Lawrenceburg.

Mrs. Bettie Shipman, of Taylor county, was found dead in bed.

The Ferguson addition to Somerset voted a $10,000 bond issue to build a public school.

The files show that there are 1,014 unrecorded deeds in the county clerk's office at Liberty.

Danville has been swept by a wave of reform and the Citizens' League, recently formed, has persuaded all keepers of disorderly houses to leave the city. Blind tigers have been closed and an effort will be made to have the drug stores stop selling liquor, even on prescription.

Mrs. Laura M. Smith, Administratrix of her husband, Joe Smith, has through her attorneys, Wesley & Brown and V. P. Smith, filed suit for $25,000 against the Somerset Water, Light & Traction Company for the death of her husband Joe Smith. The petition states that the said Water, Light & Traction Company carelessly and negligently failed to furnish safe appliances for Smith to work with and thereby caused his death. —Somerset times.

Andy Payne died at the home of his daughter at Livingston. He had been in very poor health for more than a year. Mr. Payne was the last one of the boys of the old Payne family living and of the 13 children only two are left. The Rockcastle Spoke Co. was organized here with a capital stock of $7,500. The riding of freight trains between this place and Rowland has been of no little worry to the railroad company and employees, but since the road officials have exerted every effort possible, it begins to look like the stopping point will only come when the last saloon in Rowland has done its do. —Mt. Vernon Signal.

The Board of Control for the Woman's College of Kentucky was organized in Danville Saturday. Hon. Charles H. Rodes was elected president; Judge Charles T. Armstrong, vice president; William G. Dunlap, secretary, and John A. Quisenberry, treasurer. All of these men are citizens of Danville and are leaders in business and can be counted upon to push the new institution rapidly to the front. The first action of the board was to call upon the two synods of Kentucky for a payment of the $51,000, which has already been subscribed, by July 1 next. The two soliciting committees, representing the two synods, will meet this week and begin an active campaign to collect the amounts already promised and raise the $9,000 necessary to secure the $20,000 donation of Andrew Carnegie and the property offered by J. A. Shuttleworth, of Louisville.

Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

There is probably no medicine made that is relied upon with more implicit confidence than Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. During the third of a century in which it has been in use, people have learned that it is the one remedy that never fails. When reduced with water and sweetened it is pleasant to take. For sale by all druggists.

The State Supreme Court of Kansas granted a writ to oust Peter Everhardy, Mayor of Leavenworth, from office for failure to enforce the laws against saloons and other resorts, and also issued a writ to compel the city of Leavenworth to cease licensing such places.
